Task 3: Case Study (15 marks)Instructions: Read the following scenario and answer all questions.

Mr. Donald White is calling The Grand Continental Hotel to make a room reservation.

Receptionist : Good morning. (The receptionist was in the midst of finishing a curry puff in her mouth). The Grand Continental Hotel. Reception department. May I help you?

Mr. White : Hi, good morning. I'd like to make a reservation for the third weekend in March. Do you have any rooms available?

Receptionist : Yes, sir. We have several rooms available for that weekend. May I ask, when is the exact date of your arrival?

Mr. White : The 23rd. (In the background his son spoke to him loudly, "Dad, I am going to the groceries with mum").

Receptionist : Sorry, sir. The date again, please?

Mr. White : 23rd... 23rd of March.

Receptionist : Thank you, sir. How long is your stay with us?

Mr. White : I'll be staying for two nights.

Receptionist : May I know how many people is the reservation for?

Mr. White : Only two of us.

Receptionist : Would you like a room with twin beds or a double bed?

Mr. White : A double bed, please.

Receptionist : Sure. Would you prefer a room with a view of the ocean?

Mr. White : If that type of room is available, I would love to have an ocean view. What's the rate for the room?

Receptionist : Your room is five hundred and eighty ringgit per night inclusive of the sales and service tax.

Mr. White : Whoa! Five hundred and eighty ringgit a night!

Receptionist : I'm afraid that is the rate, sir. Under whose name will the reservation be?

Mr. White : Donald White.

Receptionist : Could you spell your last name for me, please?

Mr. White : Sure. W-H-I-T-E.

Receptionist : Can I have your phone number, please? (At the same time, a maintenance staff member was dragging a ladder behind the reception counter to change the faulty fluorescent light).

Mr. White : I'm sorry, I can't hear you. Can you please repeat?

Receptionist : Is there a phone number where you can be contacted?

Mr. White : Yes, my mobile number is 012-6616016.

SECTION B [15 MARKS]

Instructions: Read the situation below and complete the given task.

SITUATION:

On the 1st of March 2019, Maria and Mario Diego, had their wedding dinner reception at Haven Havanna Hotel, a five-star hotel. All arrangements were discussed with the Marketing manager and a deposit of RM10,000 was made prior to the event. However, on the day of the reception, there was a power outage in the hotel starting from 5:30 p.m. till about 7:00 p.m. This has caused their wedding dinner programme to be delayed as the couple faced difficulties and inconvenience when they were changing into their wedding attire, putting on make-up and having a hairdo. On top of that, the guests gave feedback that the hotel sound system was poor because they were not able to hear clearly the announcements made by the emcee and speeches by the bride and groom.

TASK:

As a Marketing manager, write a letter of apology in about 150-200 words to Maria and Mario Diego to apologise for the power outage and poor sound system. You need to include the reasons, relevant details and compensation for the shortcomings that had happened. Use a full block open punctuation format.
